Public Notice

This is to inform that due to the unforeseen force majeure situation of Iran-Israel conflict and resultant non-availability of air connectivity to Iran, booking of all categories of international mail for Iran is being kept on hold on temporary basis till further instructions. The situation is being reviewed regularly and booking will be resumed as soon as flight connections establish.

Further, in case of articles which have already been booked for Iran but not yet dispatched from India, customer may have the option to recall their articles by submitting a application for recall of the shipment to the booking Post Office.
